As Vice Chair-Market Development, Rob is responsible for driving cross-functional quality growth in KPMG’s largest markets, with an emphasis on Fortune 1000, strategic mid-market and private equity firms. In this position, Rob also oversees KPMG’s 14 industry sectors and its Marketing Group. He is a member of KPMG LLP’s US Management Committee.

Rob was named Vice Chair-Market Development in 2009. Prior to that, he served the firm as Vice Chair-Market Strategy and as managing partner of KPMG’s New York Office, the firm’s largest. As managing partner of New York, a position he held for seven years, Rob was responsible for the delivery of high-quality client service, attracting and retaining key resources, and representing the firm and the New York Office in the marketplace and community.

Rob has significant client service experience with global accounts and has held a series of leadership positions of increasing responsibility within the firm. He has served as the Lead Area Managing Partner for the Northeast Area and had direct responsibility for the results of the Audit practice as Northeast Area Managing Partner for Audit. He joined the firm in 1983 and was elected to the partnership in 1995.

Rob is an active supporter of a number of community and charitable organizations including: PENCIL, New York Says Thank You, Chaminade H.S. Parents Board, CONCERN, Citizens Committee for NYC, and City Harvest.
